The Rev. Pixton opened the meeting in prayer.

The committee met for its regularly scheduled meeting Friday May 6th at Westminster Church in DeKalb at 10:00 AM.

- We met with CRE in training Karen Williams, CRE in training, for her annual meeting with us. She is really enjoying her studies and life at church. She is on track to be done a year from now. Goals for the year continue meeting with the community you have been meeting with on a regular basis, preach as much as possible, prepare for the next steps, statement of faith, prepare for oral exams and think about the context you feel called to be a CRE. Our time with Karen Williams was closed in prayer by Rev. Jan Chandler.
- We meet with CRE in training Ray Lantz for his annual meeting. He is finishing up some of his requirements and we are working on getting some of his paperwork updated. He really enjoys time spent in study with the pastor at his church. We suggested that he follow the following suggestions; Take a CPE course to help with Pastoral Care, Spend time discerning with your wife on what your call to ministry as a CRE looks like, Get in the practice of preaching by doing pulpit supply and keep in contact with your pastor as you look for a mentor. Our time with Ray was closed in prayer by Rev. Jim Camp.
- We met with David Hegge who is interested in starting the inquirer process. We talked about his sense of call and got to know him better through asking questions. He asked some questions about the call process works and we suggested different growth areas to David to work on for the next year. Along with him getting enrolled at University of Dubuque. We voted to enroll David in the call process and to become an inquirer. Our time with David was closed in prayer by Rev. Ryan Pixton
- We met with Teresa Green and our time with her was opened in prayer by Rev Jan Chandler. Teresa updated us on what is happening in her life and where she is in the process. We discussed where she needed to be to move to the next phases of the call process. We also asked how we can support her and then suggested areas of growth for her in the coming year. Our time with Teresa was closed by Rev. Murray Hanson.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. Ryan Pixton.

The next meeting of CPM is scheduled for Friday June 3rd 2016, at Westminster DeKalb, 10:00 AM.
