Supporting Thriving Faith
Communities in Northern Illinois

Leadership Opportunities in Blackhawk Presbytery

Our Vision and Values

Grounded in the biblical image for human community, as disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ, we challenge and support congregations to be thriving faith communities by facilitating competent leadership and resourcing to energize ministry and mission.

As Christians, guided by the principles of love, trust, open communication, and genuine relationships, we value each other as sisters and brothers in faith in all our varied theological understandings. Therefore, we relish respectful discussions of differing opinions as a necessary part of discerning the will of God.

An Invitation

A Presbytery is defined in the Presbyterian Church (USA) Book of Order as “a corporate expression of the church. . . . The Presbytery is responsible for the government of the church throughout its district, and for assisting and supporting the witness of congregations to the sovereign activity of God in the world, so that all congregations become communities of faith, hope, love, and witness.”

Blackhawk Presbytery consists of Ministers of the Word and Sacrament (teaching elders) and congregations, and is supported in its work by the General Presbyter/Stated Clerk, the Treasurer, and support staff. Within the structure and rules of the Book of Order and Blackhawk Presbytery’s Corporation Bylaws and Ecclesiastical Administrative Manual, it is the minister members and the congregations who guide the decisions and work of the Presbytery.

So, we—each and every one of us—are Blackhawk Presbytery. And in our work together, we have agreed that we value being

- Missionally focused
- Accountable
- Faithful
- Energized
- Connected
- Permission-giving
- Engaged in gift-based ministries

This booklet identifies specific opportunities for you to become directly involved in the work of the Presbytery. We hope that you will find a place that engages your passion and your gifts and will answer the call to be in ministry and mission with others in the Presbytery.

Blackhawk Presbytery Nominating Committee Revised August, 2017

passion, your gifts, your commitment are what makes it possible for us to be—Blackhawk Presbytery.

Frequently Asked Questions

How long will I serve?

Unless otherwise specified, terms of office are three years, beginning at the close of the November Presbytery Assembly meeting, with the privilege of one re-election.

Will I have to pay for my own expenses?

Officers, moderators, commission and committee members are eligible for mileage reimbursement at the current charitable rate for volunteers--$.14 per mile. Meals during committee meetings are paid for from each board or committee's budget. Incidental expenses are eligible for reimbursement if approved in advance by the board or committee moderator. Mileage reimbursement and expenses are paid on receipt of an approved voucher. All expenses for Commissioners to the General Assembly are paid for by General Assembly per capita funds.

How will I get "up to speed" as a new participant?

Commissions and committees schedule an annual orientation meeting to assess progress in the past year and bring new members up to speed. Guidelines and manuals may also be used.

When and where are Presbytery Assembly meetings and am I expected to attend?

Presbytery meets in assembly on the 2nd Tuesday of February, April, June, September, and November at locations around the Presbytery. Moderators are expected to attend while attendance by committee members is encouraged but not required.

Will I make a difference?

YES! Without the work of individuals from among the minister members and congregations that are Blackhawk Presbytery, neither the required governance functions nor the missional programming and resourcing functions can happen. Your

Commissions and Committees of the Presbytery Assembly

Commission on Ministry (COM)

Composition: Twenty-seven members in three classes of nine persons, composed of a balanced representation of Ministers of Word and Sacrament and ruling elders, elected for three year terms.

Responsibilities:

COM serves as pastor and counselor to the ministers (teaching elders) and ruling elders commissioned to pastoral service in the Presbytery, facilitates relations between congregations, pastoral leadership, and the Presbytery, assists congregations during pastoral transitions, and settles difficulties on behalf of the Presbytery when possible and expedient.

Each commission member is assigned specific churches for which he/she is liaison. Each commissioner's work involves driving to the churches for which he/she is liaison for meetings often held in the late afternoon and evening. Commission members also must have personal email access, since timely communication among commission members is important.

The commission is grouped into 4 geographic areas, each with an area moderator. The area moderators and the commission moderator constitute the executive committee of the commission.

Meetings: Areas meet as needed. Executive Committee typically meets 2 weeks before each Presbytery meeting. Committee as a whole—2 meetings per year, generally January (overnight retreat) and October.

Committee on Preparation for Ministry (CPM)

Composition: Nine members in three classes of three, composed of a balanced representation of ruling elders and Ministers of Word and Sacrament, elected for three year terms .

Responsibilities:

In accordance with the Book of Order, provide oversight and guidance to individuals seeking to explore their calling (inquirers) or to fulfill their calling (candidates) in the care process regarding preparation to become a Minister of Word and Sacrament (teaching elder). The care process includes selection, reception, care, examination, and ordination or transfer of candidates, as well as the potential dismissal of inquirers/candidates from the care process. CPM also oversees the preparation and training of those seeking to be commissioned as lay pastors.
